

OBITUARY

Judith Lipsey Lupo

NOVEMBER 26, 1939 – AUGUST 31, 2019

Judy Lupo passed away unexpectedly at her home in Houston, Texas on August 31, 2019. She was born in Atlanta, Georgia on November 26, 1939 to William and Mildred Coleman Lipsey. As a child, she lived in Anniston, Riverside, and Birmingham, Alabama. She attended Emory University, where she earned a Masters in Speech Pathology and Audiology. She was active with Kappa Delta sorority and served in Panhellenic throughout her life.

While at Emory she met and married Edward Dixon Lupo. Judy worked for Houston ISD and Katy ISD as a Speech Pathologist until retirement. She also established a private practice out of her home when her sons were in elementary school.

Her family was her greatest calling, raising her two sons and supporting her husband. She lived by Faith, Family, and Service. Outside of work she dedicated her time to her family and numerous philanthropic organizations; always seeking to give back to the community. She was an active member of Memorial Drive United Methodist Church and served in many capacities and ministries there. She was a Stephen Minister and Leader and served as a delegate to Annual Conference. She also volunteered at Addicks Elementary serving as PTO president as well as other positions of service. She was active in the Houston Junior Women's Club and the Junior League.

One of her greatest joys was serving as a Docent at the Bayou Bend Collection and Gardens for many years. She loved to travel and take in the history and culture of new destinations. There were many family vacations that she meticulously planned and enjoyed. Dick and Judy loved traveling the world.

She is preceded in death by her parents, William and Mildred Lipsey. She is survived by her husband, Edward Dixon Lupo; her brother Thomas Coleman Lipsey and wife Georgia; her sons, Alexander Dixon Lupo and wife Kelly, and Todd Carson Lupo and wife Anne; and grandchildren: Anne, Cassidy, Camryn, Elizabeth, Connor, and William; and many cousins, nieces and nephews.

Visitation will be held at Memorial Drive United Methodist Church at 10 am on Friday, September 6th with memorial service to follow at 11am with Rev. Jim McPhail presiding. Interment will take place on Wednesday, September 11, 2019 at the Coleman Cemetery in Riverside, Alabama. Memorial gifts can be directed to the Caring Forever Fund of Memorial Drive United Methodist Church.
